FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GREEK WEEK CO-CHAIRS SELECTED

CHARLESTON--Greek Week co-chairs were recently selected to coordinate Eastern Illinois University's annual Greek Week, March 31 through April 8.

During the week, Eastern's Greek community will raise money for worthwhile philanthropies by competing in games such as obstacles, relay races, tug-o-war, bingo-a-thon and Greek Sing, the Midwest's largest amateur choral competition.

Eastern's student activities office selects the steering committee co-chairs, who are responsible for a Greek Week committee or event.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.

Listed below are the Greek Week co-chairs and their hometowns:

ALGONQUIN--Jason Haier, son of David and Marcia Haier of Algonquin and Lorraine Flanagan of Lombard; 1992 graduate of Jacobs High School in Algonquin; junior marketing major; selected Greek Week philanthropy co-chair.
